

SELF INTEREST.

The views taken by the people of this Coast on the inter-State Commerce law are entirely governed by self interest. Nothing else cuts the slightest figure. The APPEAL favors the law in common with all residents of Nevada because it gives us an advantage over San Francisco.

In California the fruit growers object because it raises the freights on fruit sent East. The California manufacturers like it because it keeps Eastern goods out of the California market. A large number of interests protest against Section 4, and again a large number of interests favor it.

Secretary Morley has received a numerous signed petition from the citizens of California, requesting the inter-State Commerce Commission not to suspend the operation of Section 4 of the inter-State Commerce law, so far as the commerce of the Pacific Coast is concerned until an opportunity be offered all persons interested to be heard. The petition says:

"We do not ask for special protection for goods manufactured on the Coast, but we do expect that our manufacturers will not be discriminated against by having the surplus product of the Eastern States brought here at a nominal freight rate to interfere with our many accruing interests, while higher freight is charged us to get our goods out of the State."

We are all looking out for We, Us & Co. and No. 1, and it wouldn't be human nature if we didn't.

The Immigration Bureau.

The last Legislature passed an Act providing for certain State officers to constitute an Immigration Bureau for Nevada. While the idealized in the right direction the imposing extra duties upon the State officials not under consideration when the officers were elected, is not generally productive of good results. The Board will never feel that there is any compulsion regarding their duties and they are not likely to enter upon their enforced duties with any special degree of enthusiasm. The State asks the Board to do a great deal on very little money and an uncertain sum at that. The printing of a pamphlet to distribute in the East under these circumstances will never amount to much.

In order to give the advantages of Nevada a good show in the East the State should appropriate at least $5,000 a year and empower an Immigration Bureau to make such a showing as will make an impression wherever it is read. The mere collecting of statistics amounts to very little. The future of Nevada's resources must not be a mere outline but a glowing scene of beauty, highly colored and calculated to make people in the East feel that life is a burden until they reach here. That is the way the California pamphlets impress every reader. It is the pictures of the scenic tropical trees, the lime and orange groves that set the teeth of the East on edge and start a steady stream of humanity into the Golden State. In the hands of a proper Board paid by the State to devote their time to work an immense amount of good can be accomplished. Here for centuries has been stowed thousands of feet above us Lake Tahoe, and its water is mostly running to waste. This vast reservoir of wealth is bigger than a dozen Comstocks and once tapped by a tunnel will irrigate a million acres of sage land but the State lacks the enterprise to carry on the work. This tunnel would double the wealth of every man in the State, yet one hears nothing but opposition to it.

—The Queen of the Sandwich Islands has not lived at home for a year. The cause of the estrangement lies in the fact that the old King is entirely too frolicsome in his habits. The people of the Islands think that the Queen is putting on airs to make a row about so slight a thing as that, and charge her with trying to ape the customs of the more civilized nations.

—James Smith, from New York, attempted to board a moving train at Sacramento, but fell under the wheels and was killed.
